All-India Congress Hints at New Barter Offer to Britain

Parachute Troops And Tanks Landing Behind Soviet Lines

By ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

German mechanized columns thundered deeper into the Caucasus today, on the road to Russia's vast oil treasures, and hundreds of Nazi parachute troops and even small airborne tanks were reported landing behind the lines in an attempt to paralyze Soviet communications.

German military dispatches said Adolf Hitler's SS (Elite Guard) troops had captured Kropotkin, 125 miles below Rostov on the railroad and oil pipeline from the Caspian Sea, and had reached the Kuban river along a 60-mile front.

The Nazis said Axis troops were continuing "pursuit of defeated Russians on a broad front."

Soviet dispatches still declared that the main struggle was raging far to the north of Kropotkin and gave no inkling that the Nazis had advanced so far to the south.

Red Fleet, the Soviet navy newspaper, said Russian warships in the Sea of Azov were shelling German troop columns and frustrating Nazi attempts to move sea-borne reinforcements into the battle south of Rostov. Red navy guns were credited with sinking an undisclosed number of German ships.

A German spokesman declared that the position of the Russian Black Sea fleet was "constantly more endangered" and that about 70 small Red navy craft—mostly gunboats and motor torpedo boats—were in the Don river estuary had been "rendered homeless."

Italian torpedo boats were credited with sinking a 6,500-ton Soviet cruiser in the Black Sea.

Dispatches to Red Star said German "chutists" were dropping from the skies in groups of 100 to 150, armed with machineguns, mine-throwers and automatic rifles.

Detailed map showing latest developments will be found on page five of this issue.

Red Star said the aerial invaders were attempting to seize railway stations or other key objectives and hold on until motorized land reinforcements arrived.

Overnight, the situation appeared to have taken a sharp turn for the worse along the whole 300-mile Don-Caucasus front, with the Russians acknowledging withdrawals in three main sectors despite bloody losses inflicted on the Nazis.

WILL PROBE BLACK STEEL MARKET TALE

Two Investigations Into Charges Made Before Congressional Group Are Promised

ACTION BY HENDERSON

New Orleans, Aug. 5.—(P)—Two investigations were promised today into charges made before a congressional subcommittee here that a "black market" in steel existed where "immediate delivery was made" from "bulging warehouses scattered over the nation."

Price Administrator Leon Henderson in Washington ordered an immediate probe by the OPA of charges made yesterday by Frank Higgins, associated with his father, A. J. Higgins, in shipbuilding here, that his company bought steel from such markets at higher premiums.

Prior to Henderson's order, President Roosevelt at a Washington press conference said he thought persons who sold steel in such markets should go to jail and that the charges should be investigated.

The second investigation was promised by Rep. Peterson (D-Fla.), chairman of the house subcommittee investigating the maritime commission's cancellation last month of the A. J. Higgins contract to build 200 Liberty ships because of an alleged steel shortage.

"This matter of a steel black market will be fully investigated," Peterson declared.

The committee planned to call Frank Higgins in executive session to question him regarding steel warehouses with which he said his firm had bought steel from (Turn to Page Seven)

Chungking, Aug. 5.—(P)—American bombers in an attack on Japanese installations in the vicinity of Hankow, inland center on the Yangtze river, hit wharves, warehouses and shipping yesterday, a communiqué from Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters said today.

"The results were very satisfactory," the war bulletin added.

Japanese warplanes attacked Kweilin, 250 miles northwest of Canton, this morning and early reports indicated three were shot down, the communiqué said.

Two were bagged by American fighters, it said, an done by ground fire.

Appreciative Chinese have raised $6,500 to buy gifts for airmen of the United States air force in China who, like their predecessors in the American volunteer group, have become popular heroes.

Girls Help to Down Bombers Over Britain

London, Aug. 5.—(P)—A former dressmaker and a maid helper shot down three of the six German bombers destroyed over Britain in the past 48 hours.

They are members of the Auxiliary Territorial Service who help man anti-aircraft defenses along the east coast.

Others who were in action included a former telephone operator, a nurse and a seamstress. The girls, all between the ages of 18 and 27, were in action for several hours alongside male members of the anti-aircraft batteries.

Survivors of Freighter Sunk By Submarine Say Members Machinegunned

BRITISH SHIP LOST

Seattle, Aug. 5.—(P)—Survivors of an American freighter sunk by a Japanese submarine in the north Pacific the night of July 14 reported upon their arrival here that crew members were machinegunned as they drifted away from their flaming vessel in a lifeboat and two rafts.

The submarine attacked the medium-sized freighter at 8 p. m. and scored eight direct hits during the two-hour attack, finally knocking out her steering and setting her afire. More than 30 shells were fired.

Two sailors died from shell wounds and six others from exposure. Seventeen men, huddled on one raft, drifted for four days and nights in the icy seas before being rescued. Some of the crew members were not picked up by (Turn to Page Seven)

Greensburg, Aug. 5.—(P)—Dominick Pompanella, 32-year-old Johnstown steel worker who had been detained by state police investigating the fatal shooting of a cabin near Seward July 29, was released yesterday at a habeas corpus proceeding before Judge Richard D. Laird.

Assistant District Attorney C. Ward Eicher told Judge Laird the commonwealth had no evidence to warrant holding Pompanella, an eyewitness of the shooting. The victims were Joseph E. Faltin, 40, Mrs. Elsie Thomas, 29, and Mrs. Dorothy Kohler, all of Johnstown.

A coroner's jury has found the trio was killed by "a person or persons unknown."

The stories related in 1928 by "Captain Jack Von Weigand" of his purported experiences while a member of Baron von Richtofen's flying circus won him nationwide attention.

Conroy said Von Weigand disclaimed his account of shooting down 22 Allied planes, including one carrying Quentin Roosevelt, son of President Theodore Roosevelt, when FBI agents questioned him after they took him into custody Monday night.

Meanwhile, Carnegie-Illinois said the plant, employing 2,100, will close on Friday.

The company had said it was closing the plant because of government restrictions on tin plate production.

London, Aug. 5.—(P)—Reuters reported today that a Moscow radio broadcast said 4,000 Germans and Italians had been killed in a battle between Axis forces and Yugoslav patriots in the Khazar mountains. The Moscow broadcast evidently gave no source for this information.

Reuters said the broadcast reported tanks, guns and anti-tank artillery captured from the Germans, who were said to have been driven back toward Kastanitsa, southeast of Zagreb.

Reuters quoted the broadcast as reporting that in Slovenia, where large scale operations were said to be going on, the Italians used tanks, artillery and bombers to reduce villages captured by the patriots. In one section the patriots were said to have counter-attacked, checking the Italian offensive.

MESSAGE TO DISCUSS GAS AND RUBBER

President is Expected to Present His Views to Congress and Nation By Tomorrow

VETO ALCOHOL PLAN

Washington, Aug. 5.—(P)—President Roosevelt is going over the petroleum and rubber situations and may present his views to congress and the nation by tomorrow.

That probability arose today in the wake of these developments:

1. The president affirmed at his press conference yesterday that he would veto a bill setting up a separate government agency to make synthetic rubber from grain alcohol.

2. The War Production Board was reported considering, as an alternative to nation-wide gasoline rationing, a plan to limit automobile driving in non-rationed areas by making a periodical check of mileages shown on speedometers.

3. Price Administrator Leon Henderson described the eastern gasoline shortage and the national rubber emergency as separate problems "in no way connected" and said the question of nationwide fuel rationing was so important that a decision would be made "only after careful analysis of all the complex aspects of the situation."

4. The War Production Board was disclosed to have decided on nationwide rationing in July—most of the necessary forms already had been printed—but President Roosevelt intervened.

5. An Office of Price Administration official, who declined to be quoted by name, said fuel oil rationing in the east was a "distinct possibility." Curtailment of gasoline deliveries as far west as the Mississippi was being considered, he said, to make more tank cars available for the Atlantic seaboard's petroleum needs.

6. Rep. Hartley (R-N.J.) declared in a radio talk that the synthetic rubber program had been delayed by "incompetence and mismanagement" in the government agencies concerned and by "selfish, powerful, private interests."

President Roosevelt's views were expected to be set forth at some length in the message which he hoped to send congress by tomorrow vetoing the grain alcohol agency. At the same time the chief executive said he did not think anyone could make an exposition of the rubber situation, remarking there were more experts on the subject than there were varieties of pickles.

The defense rested after the testimony of Dr. Jacob Thorkelson, former Montana congressman, from whom it sought support of Pelley's published statements that this country "provoked" war with the Axis. Thorkelson testified it was his opinion that "repeal of the arms embargo was the direct act that led us into war."

Before the arguments began, the government dismissed one of the 12 counts in the indictment. This count charged Pelley with publication of false statements about the damage done at Pearl Harbor by the Japanese attack December 7.

His appeal from the sentence on charges of conspiring to obstruct justice and defraud the United States was dismissed yesterday by the Third U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals. His attorney did not indicate whether he would seek to take the case before the highest court.

The one-time Hungarian immigrant who ran $1,600 into $35,000, 000 as a Hollywood producer and then lost it all in the stock market crash of 1929 had pleaded guilty to an indictment charging conspiracy with former Circuit Court Judge J. Warren Davis and Morgan S. Kaufman, Scranton, Pa., attorney.

Charges against Davis and Kaufman were dropped after two trials ended in jury disagreement.

Fox, now 63 and in poor health, contended he was entitled to acquittal because of the jury's failure to agree in the Davis-Kaufman trials.

Indianapolis, Aug. 5.—(P)—William Dudley Pelley was called a "traitor" and a "man who serves poison against his government" by the government's chief prosecutor today in an emergency animal hospital set up in Cleveland's public hall.

While the show under the Ringling Brothers "big top" went on with all its usual glitter and bright lights last night, veterinarians worked to save five animals injured but rescued after a 20-minute fire burned to death or suffocated 30 of the circus' beasts. (Turn to Page Seven)

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 5.—(P)—One-time Bund leader Gerhard Kunze's post-Pearl Harbor appeal for funds to put more distance between himself and the United States was read today to the jury trying the Rev. Kurt E. B. Molzahn for peace-time military espionage.

"Roosevelt finally has what I think he wanted but before long he will have 'it' in the neck," wrote Kunze from Mexico on December 8 to his now imprisoned fellow plotters, Anastase A. Vonsiaty, Russian Fascist leader.

In a covering letter to Dr. Wolfgang Ebelt, El Paso, Tex., physician and Bundsmann, Kunze wrote:

"Rosenfeld has his war at last. It will cost him his head."

Two government witnesses, Dr. Otto Richard Flatter of Staten Island, N. Y., and the Rev. Aleksis Pelypenko, Ukrainian Roman Catholic priest, recalled to the stand for cross-examination by the defense, were excused with a few moments following brief questioning.

Immediately afterward, counsel for Mr. Molzahn moved for a directed verdict of acquittal on the ground that Father Pelypenko, the government's star witness was "an agent of entrapment," a motion which was denied.

General Arnold said the ratio of engine allotments to transport planes during the second half of this year would be 21 per cent of all multi-engines bombers and 30 per cent of all bombing planes with comparable range. In the first half of 1942, he said, the ratio would still be 21 per cent of the multi-engines bombers and 24 per cent of all bombers. This would be stepped up in the second half of next year to 32 per cent of all bomber output.

He disclosed the army now is using some of its long range bombers for cargo transport work and said plans are under way to divert a certain percentage of bomber construction to long range cargo planes.

"That," he said, "is why we are not as worried as some people. We can always use bombers for carrying cargo, but we cannot use cargo planes as bombers."

Washington, Aug. 5.—(P)—Machinery for a nation-wide occupational registration of women with a view to cataloging the country's total adult resources, may be included in war service legislation now being drawn for consideration by congress, creditable sources said today.

A Manpower Commission spokesman, who wished to remain anonymous, estimated one of every three or four housewives between 18 and 44 may be needed to attain full war production.

Paul V. McNutt, manpower chief, has estimated that around 5,000,000 more women must be placed in jobs by the end of 1943. Of the 53,300,000 persons now employed, according to Works Projects Administration reports, 13,900,000 are women. Of the 1,700,000 persons given new jobs from May to June, the WPA said 700,000 were women—about 40 per cent.

A registration of women over 18 in the Detroit area will be conducted next week, and possibly will serve as a model for a nation-wide count, if the Manpower Commission and congress decide one is necessary.

PLEDGE MADE TO FIGHT ON ALLIES' SIDE

Alternative, it is Indicated, Would be Mass Civil Disobedience Campaign Against British Rule

GANDHI GIVEN POWERS

By the Associated Press

India's dominant party hinted today at a barter offer to Great Britain, pledging the government to fight Japanese aggression "wholeheartedly and unreservedly on the side of the United Nations" in return for immediate independence.

The alternative, it was indicated, would be a mass civil disobedience campaign by India's 390,000,000 against British rule.

Amid confusion over his intentions, Mohandas K. Gandhi, powerful nationalist leader, was reported to have addressed the working committee of the All-India Congress Party for an hour and a half this morning after the new "barter resolution" was placed before the committee.

Subsequently, the committee drafted a resolution recommending that Gandhi be given full powers to lead a civil disobedience campaign if Britain rejects the demand for Indian independence.

The committee also adopted a 1,200-word resolution demanding "the withdrawal of British power so as to enable India to become an ally of the United Nations and fight aggressors," it was reported.

Retailers for Victory Drive Here Declared Big Success; Prize Winners Are Announced

Final results of the July-long "Retailers for Victory" campaign in Warren county show a total of $65,702 in war bonds and stamps sold by reporting stores, or approximately one-third of all bonds and stamps sold in the county during the month, it was announced this morning by W. H. Wright, chairman of the retail committee of the Warren Chamber of Commerce.

When informed of the results, R. W. Mackay, chairman of the War Bond Committee for Warren and Forest counties, expressed his satisfaction and congratulated H. B. Pettit, chairman of the retailers' committee, for his fine work in promoting the event.

Largest totals were reported by the following stores: Metzger-Wright Company, $24,553; J. C. Penney Company, $23,360; The Miller Shop, $8,121.70; S. S. Kresge Company, $3,900; Montgomery-Ward Company, $3,476; G. C. Murphy Company, $968; Steins, $820.

Prizes in the women's division of the town-wide contest went to the following: First prize of a $50 bond, Mrs. L. H. Schaeffer, of J. C. Penney Company, with total sales of $12,731. Second prize of a $25 bond, Emma Fehlman, of Metzger-Wright Company, $8,990. Third prize of $10 in stamps, Mrs. Goldie Olson, of The Miller Shop, $8,121. Fourth prize of $5 in stamps, Mrs. E. H. Springer, of J. C. Penney Company, $2,332.

In the men's division, prizes were won by the following: First prize of a $50 bond, Alan Aquist, of Metzger-Wright's, with $6,025. Second prize of a $25 bond, E. G. Goering, of S. S. Kresge, with $2,101. Third prize of $10 in stamps, B. G. Bennett, of Penney's, with $639. Fourth prize of $5 in stamps, William Lord, of Metzger-Wright's, $77.

It is requested that all prize winners present themselves at the offices of the Warren Chamber of Commerce, third floor, Warren Bank and Trust building, at 10 a. m. Monday, August 10, when the awards will be distributed.

The Warren Retailers for Victory campaign was part of a nation-wide drive to help the Treasury Department sell a quota of one billion dollars work of stamps and bonds during July and had its counterpart in every city and hamlet in the country.

Many interesting features were developed, such as the July 1 "Whiteout for Victory," the "Victory Cossage Day" on July 9 and "American Heroes Day" on July 17. Much personal rivalry went into the campaign from members of the staffs of the various stores.

Bogart is alleged to have done some wild driving about that city previous to the accident.

John Reiff, owner of the market where the fireworks had been stored from years when it was permissible to sell them, asked that the children not be punished, according to a report made by Private K. Warden Hess said Nastasi beat his head against plumbing fixtures in the county jail before being subdued.

NEW WORLD CRISIS DEVELOPING

According to the way in which DeWitt MacKenzie, Wide World war analyst, views the situation, as things now stand the coming week-end will see untold millions of Indian Nationalists committed to an effort to exact independence from Britain through one of those terribly explosive civil disobedience campaigns which heretofore have resulted in bloodshed and in the present instance, may easily develop into one of the major crises of the World War.

Pandit Nehru, who next to Mohandas Gandhi is the most powerful Nationalist leader in India, declares that the projected movement would be ratified by the All-India Congress which meets in Bombay Friday. The Pandit says it will be "short, swift and effective," and he figures that the fate of the country will be decided in about three months.

Thus Friday is a day to which not only India but the entire world must look forward with deep concern. The beginning of this "non-violent" revolution will be a gift from the Gods to the Japanese, who may be expected to take quick advantage of the situation to stage an invasion if things look favorable. Indeed, Mahatma Gandhi has warned the British that unless they grant independence, a Japanese invasion will be welcomed by discontented elements. That probably is an accurate estimate.

An important and intensely interesting development in connection with this fight which involves the fate of nearly 400,000,000 people is Gandhi's appeal to the Indian princes to share their powers with their people and not remain tied to the "imperial chariot wheel." He warns the rajahs that if British imperial rule is wrecked in India, they will disappear—unless they meantime have joined the rest of the country.

The princes are between the deep blue sea and a mountain of grief. Not only are the Nationalists making things uncomfortable for them but India's very Scots viceroy, Lord Linlithgow, has several times warned the princes to put their political houses in order.

In short, out of this situation MacKenzie sees the beginning of a great change in the status of these 562 rulers, many of whom have the power of life and death over their people and are so rich that they don't know their own possessions. The bejeweled days which for centuries have dazzled the world are drawing to a close.

"That will be all to the good," he concludes, "for in many of the native states we still have mediaeval feudalism. The princes rule by divine right, and in the not distant past they have bled their people with taxes which in some cases have gone to seventy-five percent."

Women may be registered for war work. So far as we have been able to observe they've been doing a swell job up to the present time without being signed up.

An exchange advises that now is the time to buy a light weight suit for next summer. That is, if you want a good light weight suit.

Lot of folks are still raving about the gorgeous sunset of Monday evening—one that may not be duplicated for some time to come!

Three parked cars on the Hickory street bridge this morning minus the used car federal license tax, and that was three too many.

Seems as though there never was a season when the products of Warren county truck farms looked better or were more delectable.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Answering the mail orders:

T. L. M., Akron, Ohio.—War damage insurance may be purchased from any one of the hundreds of fire insurance companies in the country. Under regulations laid down by the War Damage Corp., it provides full coverage for all real or personal property damaged or lost by enemy action or by our own forces in resisting enemy action. The premiums vary from less than $1 to a little more than $7 a thousand, depending upon the type of property. Geographical location has nothing to do with the premium. It's the same in Akron as in San Francisco or New York.

K. D., Memphis, Tenn.—There has been no official announcement, but the report is that you can look for a draft reclassification within the next three or four months. This probably will get a lot of men with dependents in cases where those dependents can exist on the allotment pay. It will not affect married men with one or more children actually living in the home. It will not affect men, single or married, who are essential to war industries. Each board is now supplied with a list of more than 30 industries considered essential. Some of these, however, are only essential if they are working on war contracts.

MPS K. W. L., Pasadena, Calif.—Don't count your 1943 taxes until they are hatched. The opinion here is that the almost six billion dollar tax bill passed by the House is just the beginning. In the first place there is the Senate hurdle to clear.

That there will be some revisions is a cinch. But even if these are minor, it's a fair guess that after the November elections are out of the way, there will be additional tax measures to bring next year's revenue somewhere near the $8,700,000,000 asked by the treasury. In Washington, it's about an even money bet that some sort of sales tax will be enacted before the first of next year.

P. R., Trenton, N. J.—Clarifying the rubber situation at this time is an utter impossibility. Not even those government officials and industrialists in a position to be the best informed are anywhere near close agreement on the matter.

A. R. T., Mineral Wells, Texas.—There is nothing in the Washington record to substantiate the claim that strikes are on the upswing. The most recent report of the labor department was that there are 17 strikes now in progress in war industries. These affect something over 10,000 men. This is about 80 per cent less than the five-year peacetime average before 1940.

H. D., Monroe, La.—I don't think there is any need at this stage of the war to worry about American machines in the air or on the ground not being as good as those of the enemy. Reports from the battlefronts where our machines are being used don't indicate any inferiority. Changes are, however, constantly being made. There probably isn't a front where our planes, tanks or guns are being used where experts are not on hand to study performance under actual battle conditions and the bugs are being knocked out as fast as they are discovered.

CHILDREN VS. HITLER

Pittsburgh, Aug. 5.—(P)—The youngsters on Dawson street in Oakland recognize a bargain when they see one.

They paid a total of 42 cents to get into a penny bazaar and take advantage of such tantalizing offers as this:

"Pin Hitler 2 cents—stab Hitler as Japan done to U. S. at Pearl Harbor."

Arranged by eleven-year-old Shirley Snyder, the show was held in a private garage. Collections from the bazaar's attractions, which included jabbing a picture of Hitler with a pin, will go to army and navy service funds.

Letters to the Editor

Editor Times-Mirror:

A reader who lost a prized long haired cat last week by the cat licking off flea powder and has since heard of other losses or severe illness in cats from the same cause suggests that caution be used with such pets. Rub the powder into the fur thoroughly for five to ten minutes and then dust off or blow off thoroughly before releasing the cat so it cannot lick the powder off. Dogs are more strongly constituted, not inclined to lick themselves and generally shake themselves thoroughly. Old time flea powder was made entirely from pyrethrum flowers, imported from Japan and China and now that this is shut off it is possible that some substitute is being used that is poisonous to small animals. However, if you value your pet and think enough of it to flea it you should use precautions. Reader.

Germany's Caucasus was declared in "mortal danger" as German forces moved southward around Salsk and Tikhoretsk while Soviet troops in the north continue to hold the Nazis at the bend of the Don (Kletskaya).

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Howard Barlow's peculiar talent for remembering long lost faces got a good workout during last week's rehearsal of the Everybody's Music Revue. The senior conductor for the group glanced down at one of his trumpet players and yelled, "Huckleberry!" The player smiled, and went right on playing. It seems that 12 years ago a trumpet player called on Barlow to play an audition. The piece played was "Huckleberry." Barlow never forgot the man's face. Until the moment he needed down and saw him in the section of the CBS Orchestra. They hadn't crossed paths. Barlow didn't know the man's name, but he remembered the face. He had auditioned more in a decade ago. Barlow's memory is a matter of moment. He reads a score, coughs once, closes it and never looks at it again. From this one thing he is able to conduct an orchestra. Toscanini does it, too. He always conducts from memory. A third facet to Barlow's peculiar memory is that he never gets an error that one of his musicians makes. If a fiddle plays a note at a certain point a certain composition, Barlow will finish every time they come that point. He is on edge lest a player repeat the mistake. They seldom do. Barlow himself is tall, slim, has an unusually high forehead — "A musician's forehead."

Girl Scouts Close Annual Camp Period

Camp Birdsall Edey, Warren county Girl Scout camp at Grunderville, is closing a successful season today after four sessions totaling five weeks and four days. More than 160 girls and 30 adults have taken part in camping activities this season. There were 28 girls between the ages of seven and ten years in camp for the one week Brownie session just closed. That even little girls can be good campers was proved by the fact that all 28 completed the full week's stay.

No serious illness or accident has marred the camp season and the only effects of the flood was cessation of canoeing on the river. No part of camp was flooded at any time.

This season's camp staff was drawn from Girl Scout leaders in Warren county, Bradford, Greenville, Oil City and Conway Springs, Kans. Each year the camp committee has tried to secure the best possible staff and, building on the experience of former years, committee members feel that this year's staff has amply demonstrated the devotion of Girl Scout leaders to the ideals of their organization. With defense positions available at high salaries, counselors have served at nominal wages in order to train future citizens.

Members of the staff were Marjorie Simones, Naomi Gaston, Rosamonde Glass, Mrs. Glenn Mickleston, Mary Jane Stone, Frances Goldberg, Mrs. Edna Doty, Lane Wroth, Richard Keller, Lydia Dickinson, Jo Mackay, Joan Weiler, Anna Fortman, Frances Russell and Mrs. Althea N. Correll.

Warren Boy Scouts Receive Flag From Local Moose Lodge

In appreciation for the services rendered by Troops 2 and 4 of the Warren County Council, Boy Scouts of America, during the convention of the Western Pennsylvania Moose Association convention here in June, the local Moose Lodge has presented the local council of Scouts with a beautiful silk American flag, complete with standard and base.

The presentation was made last Thursday evening when the following officers of the Warren lodge went to Camp Olmsted for that purpose: Harry Mintzer, governor; George Wertman, prelate; C. E. Mahood, trustee, and Walter Kiser, secretary.

In presenting the flag, Mr. Wertman complimented the boys very highly for the wonderful manner in which they greeted the visitors and assisted in many other ways. He also stated that many letters from all over the state had been received by the local lodge, each complimenting the boys for the fine job they did.

FAMILY REUNIONS

CARLSON AND EKDAHL

The 25th annual reunion of the Carlson-Ekdahl families was held at the home of Mrs. Emma Holt, 134 King street, Jamestown, N. Y., with 37 relatives and friends in attendance. The business session was in charge of the president, George Holt, with scripture reading and prayer, followed by prayer by Anil Carlson. A hearty welcome was extended and the following officers were elected: Vice president, Clifford Holt; secretary, Harold Carlson; treasurer, Ralph Swanson; program committee, Mrs. Alfred Wigren; historian, Mrs. Frank LaVigne. The historian reported three marriages and two births in the past year.

A program given included readings by Earl Ekdahl and Mrs. Ludwig Ekdahl; duet, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Holt, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Wallmark; solo, Louise Hendrickson, accompanied by Audrey Carlson. A vote of thanks was extended to George Holt and Mrs. Emma Holt and the place of meeting for next year was left to the decision of the officers.

MILLER REUNION

The annual Miller reunion will be held Saturday, August 8, at the John Lucas Grove at Sigel. A large attendance is hoped for and all are asked to provide their own table service and sugar.

NEW WORLD CRISIS DEVELOPING
According to the way in which DeWitt MacKenzie, Wide World war analyst, views the situation, as things now stand the coming week-end will see untold millions of Indian Nationalists committed to an effort to exact independence from Britain through one of those terribly explosive civil disobedience campaigns which heretofore have resulted in bloodshed and in the present instance, may easily develop into one of the major crises of the World War.
Pandit Nehru, who next to Mohandas Gandhi is the most powerful Nationalist leader in India, declares that the projected movement would be ratified by the All-India Congress which meets in Bombay Friday. The Pandit says it will be "short, swift and effective," and he figures that the fate of the country will be decided in about three months.
Thus Friday is a day to which not only India but the entire world must look forward with deep concern.
The beginning of this "non-violent" revolution will be a gift from the Gods to the Japanese, who may be expected to take quick advantage of the situation to stage an invasion if things look favorable. Indeed, Mahatma Gandhi has warned the British that unless they grant independence, a Japanese invasion will be welcomed by discontented elements. That probably is an accurate estimate.
An important and intensely interesting development in connection with this fight which involves the fate of nearly 400,000,000 people is Gandhi's appeal to the Indian princes to share their powers with their people and not remain tied to the "imperial chariot wheel." He warns the rajahs that if British imperial rule is wrecked in India, they will disappear—unless they meantime have joined the rest of the country.
The princes are between the deep blue sea and a mountain of grief. Not only are the Nationalists making things uncomfortable for them but India's very Scots viceroy, Lord Linlithgow, has several times warned the princes to put their political houses in order.
In short, out of this situation MacKenzie sees the beginning of a great change in the status of these 562 rulers, many of whom have the power of life and death over their people and are so rich that they don't know their own possessions. The bejeweled days which for centuries have dazzled the world are drawing to a close.
"That will be all to the good," he concludes, "for in many of the native states we still have mediaeval feudalism. The princes rule by divine right, and in the not distant past they have bled their people with taxes which in some cases have gone to seventy-five percent."

Women may be registered for war work. So far as we have been able to observe they've been doing a swell job up to the present time without being signed up.

An exchange advises that now is the time to buy a light weight suit for next summer. That is, if you want a good light weight suit.

Lot of folks are still raving about the gorgeous sunset of Monday evening—one that may not be duplicated for some time to come!

Three parked cars on the Hickory street bridge this morning minus the used car federal license tax, and that was three too many.

Seems as though there never was a season when the products of Warren county truck farms looked better or were more delectable.

While the government is making a search for new taxes, lot of Warren folks are still looking for the old ones.

Those ever-popular community fairs at Sugar Grove, Lander, Youngsville and Lottsville are just around the corner.

Fine nights to sleep!

T-H-O-U-G-H-T-S

Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee; and upon earth he showed thee his great fire; and thou hearest his words out of the midst of the fire.—Deuteronomy 4:36.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Answering the mail orders:
T. L. M., Akron, Ohio—War damage insurance may be purchased from any one of the hundreds of fire insurance companies in the country. Under regulations laid down by the War Damage Corp., it provides full coverage for all real or personal property damaged or lost by enemy action or by our own forces in resisting enemy action. The premiums vary from less than $1 to a little more than $7 a thousand, depending upon the type of property. Geographical location has nothing to do with the premium. It's the same in Akron as in San Francisco or New York.

K. D., Memphis, Tenn.—There has been no official announcement, but the report is that you can look for a draft reclassification within the next three or four months. This probably will get a lot of men with dependents in cases where those dependents can exist on the allotment pay. It will not affect married men with one or more children actually living in the home. It will not affect men, single or married, who are essential to war industries. Each board is now supplied with a list of more than 30 industries considered essential. Some of these, however, are only essential if they are working on war contracts.

MPS. K. W. L., Pasadena, Calif.—Don't count your 1943 taxes until they are hatched. The opinion here is that the almost six billion dollar tax bill passed by the House is just the beginning. In the first place there is the Senate hurdle to clear.

That there will be some revisions is a cinch. But even if these are minor, it's a fair guess that after the November elections are out of the way, there will be additional tax measures to bring next year's revenue somewhere near the $8,700,000,000 asked by the treasury. In Washington, it's about an even money bet that some sort of sales tax will be enacted before the first of next year.

P. R., Trenton, N. J.—Clarifying the rubber situation at this time is an utter impossibility. Not even those government officials and industrialists in a position to be the best informed are anywhere near close agreement on the matter.

A. R. T., Mineral Wells, Texas—There is nothing in the Washington record to substantiate the claim that strikes are on the upswing. The most recent report of the labor department was that there are 17 strikes now in progress in war industries. These affect something over 10,000 men. This is about 80 per cent less than the five-year peacetime average before 1940.

H. D., Monroe, La.—I don't think there is any need at this stage of the war to worry about American machines in the air or on the ground not being as good as those of the enemy. Reports from the battlefronts where our machines are being used don't indicate any inferiority. Changes are, however, constantly being made. There probably isn't a front where our planes, tanks or guns are being used where experts are not on hand to study performance under actual battle conditions and the bugs are being knocked out as fast as they are discovered.

Editor Times-Mirror:
A reader who lost a prized long haired cat last week by the cat licking off flea powder and has since heard of other losses or severe illness in cats from the same cause suggests that caution be used with such pets. Rub the powder into the fur thoroughly for five to ten minutes and then dust off or blow off thoroughly before releasing the cat so it cannot lick the powder off. Dogs are more strongly constituted, not inclined to lick themselves and generally shake themselves thoroughly. Old time flea powder was made entirely from pyrethrum flowers, imported from Japan and China and now that this is shut off it is possible that some substitute is being

CHILDREN VS. HITLER

Pittsburgh, Aug. 5.—(P)—The youngsters on Dawson street in Oakland recognize a bargain when they see one.
They paid a total of 42 cents to get into a penny bazaar and take advantage of such tantalizing offers as this:
"Fin Hitler 2 cents—stab Hitler as Japan done to U. S. at Pearl Harbor."
Arranged by eleven-year-old Shirley Snyder, the show was held in a private garage. Collections from the bazaar's attractions, which included jabbing a picture of Hitler with a pin, will go to army and navy service funds.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Howard Barlow's peculiar talent for remembering lost faces got a good workout during last week's rehearsal of the Everybody's Music. The senior conductor for S glanced down at one of his trumpet players and yelled, "Huckleberry!" The player nodded, and went right on playing.

It seems that 12 years ago a player called on Barlow to play an audition. The piece played was "Huckleberry." Barlow never forgot the name. Until the moment he heard down and saw him in the section of the CBS Orchestra. They hadn't crossed paths. Barlow didn't know the man, but he remembered the name. He had auditioned more in a decade ago.

Barlow's memory is a matter of moment. He reads a score once, closes it and never looks at it again. From this one thing he is able to conduct an orchestra. Toscanini does it, too. He always conducts from memory.

A third facet to Barlow's peculiar memory is that he never gets an error that one of his musicians makes. If a fiddle plays a note at a certain point a certain composition, Barlow will finish every time they come that point. He is on edge lest a player repeat the mistake. They seldom do.

Barlow himself is tall, slim, has an unusually high forehead — "A musician's forehead."

Girl Scouts Close Annual Camp Period

Camp Birdsall Edey, Warren county Girl Scout camp at Grundyville, is closing a successful season today after four sessions totaling five weeks and four days.

More than 160 girls and 30 adults have taken part in camping activities this season. There were 28 girls between the ages of seven and ten years in camp for the one week Brownie session just closed. That even little girls can be good campers was proved by the fact that all 28 completed the full week's stay.

No serious illness or accident has marred the camp season and the only effects of the good weather was cessation of canoeing on the river. No part of camp was flooded at any time.

This season's camp staff was drawn from Girl Scout leaders in Warren county, Bradford, Greenville, Oil City and Conway Springs, Kans. Each year the camp committee has tried to secure the best possible staff and, building on the experience of former years, counselors have served at nominal wages in order to train future citizens.

Members of the staff were Marjorie Simones, Naomi Gaston, Rosamonde Glass, Mrs. Glenn Mickle, Mary Jane Stone, Frances Goldberg, Mrs. Edna Doty, Lane Wroth, Richard Keller, Lydia Dickinson, Jo Mackay, Joan Weiler, Anna Fortman, Frances Russell and Mrs. Althea N. Correll.

Warren Boy Scouts Receive Flag From Local Moose Lodge

In appreciation for the services rendered by Troops 2 and 4 of the Warren County Council, Boy Scouts of America, during the convention of the Western Pennsylvania Moose Association convention here in June, the local Moose Lodge has presented the local council of Scouts with a beautiful silk American flag, complete with standard and base.

The presentation was made last Thursday evening when the following officers of the Warren lodge went to Camp Olmsted for that purpose: Harry Minter, governor; George Wertman, prelate; C. B. Mahood, trustee, and Walter Kiser, secretary.

In presenting the flag, Mr. Wertman complimented the boys very highly for the wonderful manner in which they greeted the visitors and assisted in many other ways. He also stated that many letters from all over the state had been received by the local lodge, each complimenting the boys for the fine job they did.

BY FLOYD PASSINGER, Sports Editor

When the league all-stars play the Sunset League champions of 1942 to ring down the curtain on the first loop baseball season in this community in three years, we'd like to suggest that a little be added to the spectacle in the way of a night for Reuben "Rabbit" Swanson, the 48-year-old veteran who can still outrun the majority of 20-year-olds, and does. If ever a local player had a night in his honor, it is this year. It is expected that he and Myron Jewell will be given the honorary positions as head of the all-star combine in the tilt, and it is only fitting that a portion of the spotlight that evening be focused directly on Swanson. "Red" has given a good many summers to community baseball, following his career through some of the minor leagues, and in his later years of baseball has aided a good many young fellows in learning the finer points of the game. He has been a capable pilot for the State Hospital, and in every way today deserves the title of "Warren's Mr. Baseball." So, fans and players alike should think this over, and we're welcoming your response. Please act promptly, that's all we ask. Shall we have a "Rabbit" Swanson Night, or not? This corner feels certain that we will.

Quickies... Have all you tennis players entered your names in the respective tourney groups for the second annual city-wide tennis tournament which starts next week? If not, better hurry... Deadline is closing time at the 27th tonight and midnight through the front mail chute in the Times-Mirror business office... Frank Irvine and "Red" Muller have sent their blanks in for the senior men's singles championship event... A couple of better-than-average slappers... Joe Massa, who has been absent from the State Hospital Sunset League roster since he played three bang-up ball games at the start of the season, will be home to stay Friday of this week and is expected to take part in the championship series against the Irvine club... Meanwhile, he's also expected to play with the NFO over the weekend in the Tri-County League... He should add needed power at bat to the Swanson outfit... The first time it was hard to raise enthusiasm among C. V. C. C. golfers and Maplehurst linkers for a meet at the Conewago, but now that the lid has been kicked away from this type of event, both sides are getting anxious for a second meeting... Should be arranged for late in August...

The Hospital and the Forge will play this year's Sunset League championship series... Starts Thursday night at 6:15 o'clock on Russell Field... and probably there will be a fireworks demonstration before it over that will be reminiscent of the Fourth of July... Beaten nine successive times by the Irvine clubbers, the Swansons still feel confident that they can give them an honest run for the money and possibly beat them across the finish line... We'll see... In the meantime, the town's baseball fans undoubtedly will gather frequently on the street corners to hash out all over again last night's torrid playoff tilt between the Hospital and Eagles... Some extremely inept baseball has been seen prior to this during the summer on Russell Field, but last evening's game, with so much at stake, really took the cake... Every pitch carried a thrill and the best part of it all is the fact that the single run scored was an earned run, which left no grievance in that respect... Defeat was bitter to the Flock, but they did themselves proud in every respect... Bob Baker is the boy deserving of special credit... He pitched a masterful ball game... And fans may well listen to their cry, "Wait 'til next year," if the Flock players aren't in Uncle Sam's armed forces by then...

DEADLINE IS TONIGHT FOR NET TOURNEY

Tennis players who haven't as yet entered their respective names in the second annual city-wide tennis tournaments, three classes, which will begin next Monday if sufficient interest is shown, are urged to fill out a postcard with the necessary information and submit it to one of two places where entries are being received before the deadline tonight.

There is no entry fee for any of the three events to be staged, and all that's asked of each entrant is that he give his name, age, address and best playing time for the benefit of the tournament committee.

Entries will be received at the Y. M. C. A. until closing time this evening and at the Times-Mirror, in the front office mail chute, until midnight tonight.

Pairings for first round play, if enough entries are realized, will be made tomorrow and will be published for the benefit of all players.

The tournament will be staged on the Hospital and Y. M. C. A. tennis courts.

Canadian Play To Get Under Way Thursday

Toronto, Aug. 5—(P)—The locker-room boys are wondering today if they weren't a little hasty in conceding the Canadian Open to tee-sized Ben Hogan.

When Hogan toured the championship layout at the Mississauga Club a few hours after his arrival yesterday he looked good, only rarely to fall far behind the old maestro from Mamaroneck, N. Y., Craig Wood.

Wood and Hogan will tour Mississauga again today in preparation for the opening tomorrow of the three-day, 72-hole competition for the Canadian Open's $3,600 in prize money and the Seagram Gold Cup.

Dimout Helps Giants Tie Dodgers; Pirates Defeat Chicubs, 2-1

BY JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
New York fans may never like "twilight" baseball, but they are now ready to admit that the dimout plays no favorites.

Twice in two nights the struggles of the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants have been prematurely ended by the army regulations which require that floodlights must be extinguished an hour after sundown.

Monday this rule helped beat the Giants 7-4 when darkness smothered a promising rally in the last half of the ninth inning—to the violent displeasure of a crowd of 37,305 fans assembled for the benefit of Army Relief.

Last night, however, the switching off of the Polo Grounds lights erased a four-run tenth-inning outburst by the Dodgers and gave the Giants a 1-1 tie which the teams will play off Sept. 6. This time the 15,000 fans accepted the incident without a demonstration, although they had booed time-killing maneuvers of the rivals throughout the game.

The fans' loss was slight compared to that of Peeewe Reese, the Dodgers' little shortstop, who hit a home run inside the park with the bases loaded to kayo Fiddler Bill McGee in the tenth with none out. It didn't count because the inning never was finished.

The same teams met in their third successive two-night game tonight, but this time across the city in Brooklyn.

Although the Dodgers didn't win, their National League lead, was extended to 10 full games, their largest margin of the season, because the St. Louis Cardinals were set down 4-3 at Cincinnati.

The Pittsburgh Pirates captured a 2-1 decision over the Chicago Cubs on Frankie Gustine's only hit of the day, a single with two on in the 11th inning. Bob Klingner held the Cubs to seven hits.

At Philadelphia Jim Tobin limited the Phils to five hits, but was beaten 4-2 because the only runs the Boston Braves scored were on Tobin's own homer with a mate aboard in the seventh inning.

MRS. MURDOCK TAKES A CASE

Chapter 37
New Tack

"I'M SO sorry," Delia said to Dean Thorndike. "I never thought that you might be worried."

"Worried? Hah! That's putting it mildly. I didn't think much about it when I phoned last night, naturally. But I called this morning and you weren't in, and the Red Cross people didn't know anything about you. Then I saw in the paper that you two had discovered the body. Who is this man Hardacker, anyway?"

"A private detective," Delia said.

"Now," he said, "just what have you two been doing?"

They told him, collaborating as they went along and starting from the time Delia went to see Perry Clarke. He listened intently and without interruption until they came to the intruder in Delia's apartment; then he leaned forward, eyes twinkling.

"What? You mean to tell me there was a man up in your apartment, the night I drove you home...? And you?"—he looked at Joyce—"never said a word about it when you came down?"

"How could I?" Joyce said. "Delia didn't want to tell you about the envelope. If I'd said anything you probably would have given me the third degree and called the police." She shrugged. "There was no point in just saying he was a burglar."

Thorndike shook his head and leaned back in the chair. "It's beyond me but—your've got nerve, I'll say that. His glance sharpened. "Do you know who it was?"

"Joyce looked at Delia and said: 'No.'"

"Hardacker, do you think?" "Possibly," Delia said. "He's been to my place about three hours before."

"All right," Thorndike said. "Go on."

They told him the rest of the story and he sat quite still until they had finished, his eyes worried and thoughtful.

News About Ward

"YOU two kids went down there on Morton Street alone," he said finally, pulling out a handkerchief and wiping his palms. "At ten o'clock at night? That's the damndest thing I ever heard of."

"We had to," Delia said. "You thought you had to, you mean."

"You really did." "Humm—what was luck wasn't it? Recognizing him, I mean. From where we were parked, and being in the dark and all, you did well to—"

"I didn't, at first," Joyce said. "But there was a lighted window next to the doorway and he turned that way. He walked right past it."

"And after that you had to face the police, eh? And this lad Fenner. Who is he?"

Joyce explained and when she had finished Delia spoke up.

"What about Ward? You had something to tell us."

"I have," Thorndike laughed himself out of the chair, hauling more worried than ever. He wants to go away—he is going away, I guess."

"Going away?" Delia jumped to her feet, her face paling. "Where?"

"He doesn't know. Or if he does, he won't tell. Just away."

"But he can't do that."

"That's what I told him. He telephone to tell me he was re-

Parachute Troops And Tanks Landing Behind Soviet Lines

(From Page One)
Germans, sending waves of 50 to 60 tanks smashing into Red army defenses, had broken through in the Belaya Glinia sector, 40 miles southwest of Nazi-captured Salsk, in a drive threatening to trap Russian forces below Rostov.
Other Russian withdrawals were acknowledged in the Tsimlyansk sector, 120 miles up the Don river from Rostov, and in the important Kletska sector, 80 miles northwest of Stalingrad.

A Vichy (French) broadcast reported that German advance troops, striking far ahead of the main Nazi armies, had penetrated to within 13 miles of Armavir, key junction on the rail line to the Malkop and Baku oil fields.

If true, this would mean that the invaders were in a position to bottle up sizeable Russian forces defending the west side of the Caucasus land-bridge to the Middle East.

Dispatches from Moscow said the entire nation was aware of the fast-developing crisis, and the newspaper Pravda exhorted the Red armies to fight with "more firmness and stubbornness—and the enemy will be stopped."

But the Germans, heedless of the terrible slaughter inflicted in their ranks, were pouring massive reserves into the struggle, and it appeared that unless Marshal Semenov Timoshenko had a hidden trick up his sleeve, the great trans-Caucasus oil fields were in great peril.

U. S. Bombers Blast Japs in Hankow Area

today they would pay a "comfort" visit to the Americans at the front August 14, China's air force day, as a tribute to "their brilliant success against the Japanese."

General MacArthur's Headquarters, Australia, Aug. 5.—(P)—The suspension of all but reconnaissance operations in the Australian theatre today found the Japanese apparently halted in the Kokoda area of New Guinea, near the base of the two-mile-high Owen Stanley Range, two weeks after their Buna-Gona landing and the start of their drive across the island.

Latest reports indicated that the airfield and other small clearings in the jungle at Kokoda—on the far side of the towering mountains from the Allies' Port Moresby base on the south shore—were a virtual no man's land, with both Allied and Japanese troops keeping close to the shelter of the dense, tropical foliage.

Jap Menace on New Guinea Front

Slabbing across the narrow finger of New Guinea's mountainous Papua section, Jap troops from Burma are a major threat to the base at Port Moresby manned by Americans and Australians. Highest part of mountains lies between Kokoda, reached by Japs, and allied base.

Congressmen in Four States Beat Back Their Opponents

By the Associated Press
Congressmen in Virginia, Kansas, Missouri and West Virginia successfully weathered renomination battles in yesterday's primary day balloting.

Unofficial tabulations in the contests in which the chief issues were labor and pre-war foreign policies, gave victory to Virginia's one two representatives who faced Democratic opposition; to Senator Arthur Capper, veteran 77-year old Kansas Republican, and to Governor Matthew M. Neely of West Virginia in his battle with former Governor H. G. Kump for the Democratic nomination to the U. S. senate.

In Kansas, Andrew Schoepel, former state corporation commissioner chairman and youngest in the Republican gubernatorial race, won the nomination from three opponents. Lieutenant Gov. Carl Friend, U. S. Senator Clyde M. Reed, and Thale P. Skovgard, a political newcomer.

In Missouri, Richard M. Duncan, veteran Democratic congressman, defeating former Circuit Judge Fred C. Frankenhoff, Representative Walter C. Ploeser, St. Louis Republican, also had a close contest in beating out six opponents in a campaign based solely on his pre-Pearl Harbor voting record.

ICELAND LIGHTHOUSE ATTACKED BY PLANE

Reykjavik, Iceland, Aug. 5.—(P)—German planes have attacked a lighthouse on tiny Grimsey island a half-mile off Holmavik on the northeast coast of Iceland. United States army authorities announced today.

The lighthouse is operated entirely by Icelanders in a region known as "the claw."

The army announced Monday that a lone German raider bombed and machine-gunned a military installation on the southeast coast of United States-garrisoned Iceland. There were no casualties or damage.

That was the fifth instance of German aerial activity over Iceland.

Nine others had to be shot to put them out of misery.

All were on display in the show's menagerie but had no part in big top performances.

Cause of the blitz-blaze was not definitely determined, but Chief Louis P. Pritsch of the fire prevention bureau said he believed the fire was started by either a carelessly thrown cigarette or a live coal from a passing railroad engine. The circus pitched on the downtown lakefront.

John Ringling North, circus head, estimated the damage at $200,000 although a complete inventory of animal losses in the menagerie's 18 cages and rows of tethered beasts had not yet been completed.

There was no insurance on the damage because a circus "is classified as extremely hazardous, so the rates are prohibitive," explained Frank Braden, the organization's publicity man.

Philadelphia Girl Is Bride of Edward C. Aubitz, Jr., Monday

At high noon Monday in the First Lutheran church, Edward C. Aubitz, Jr., of 310 Prospect street, and Miss Bernadette McManus, of Philadelphia, were united in marriage. Rev. Dr. Clinton F. Hildebrand, Jr., S. T. D., pastor of St. James' church at Ligonier and cousin of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large group of friends and neighbors.

The bride wore a suit of beige crepe, with maroon accessories and an orchid shoulder corsage. Her maid of honor wore a dusty rose suit, white accessories and matching shoulder corsage of white rosebuds.

A lovely wedding dinner followed and the couple left for a brief honeymoon trip, after which they will be at home in Winston-Salem, N. C., where Mr. Aubitz has accepted a position with Ernst and Ernst, accounting firm.
